Dr. Roback—Dear Sir: I have read in the newspapers many accounts of cures effected by your Scandinavian Remedies, but consider my own case at least as interesting and marvelous as any of them. So far as you are concerned, one testimonal more or less is of hitle consequence. Your fame is established, and my statement case quence. Your fame is established, and my statement case not add to your celebrity. But, for the benefit of my fellow-creatures, I desire to make known the facts. When I called upon you at the instance of a dear friend, on the 12st of March last, I had been a years a sufferer from Catarrh. The irritation of the nerves and membrane of the nead was so intense that some times it almost drow me crazy. I could not sleep, and was never free from up pleasantsensations. At victious times five different physicism, had attended me. Each one treated me in his ow way, but none of them did me any good. I despaired dever seeing another well day; and when I called at you wer, so them of them of the any good. I despaired of ever seeing another well day; and when I called at your consultation-rooms had very little hope of rehef. By your advice I entered immediately upon a course of your Scandinavian Blood Partier and Blood Pills. I was encouraged by the cheerial, hopeful way in which you spoke, and I resolved strickly to follow your directions. In less than a week all the worst-symytoms of my complaint began to take a milder form, and so continued to improve from week to week, natil at the end of three months my head was entirely relieved, and every trace of the Catarrh had left me. Still, however, I continued to take the rem clies for nearly six weeks longer, because I found they were building up my strength and fortifying my constitution. Six months have passed since the cure was finished, and I have had no sign of a relapse. I should be glad to see this letter, or the substance of it, in print for the guidance of others.

Yours, with heartful gratinde.

CONGRATULATIONS OF THE ELEC-TORAL COLLEGE AND RESPONSE OF MAJOR BRECKINRIDGE.

In pursuance of a resolution unanimously adopted, the Electoral College as a body, immediately after its final adjournment waited upon Maj. Breckinridge, and tendered him, upon behalf of themselves and the Democracy of Ken-tucky their congratulations upon his election to the Vice Presidency. We did not witness the interesting scene which took place in the Capitol, but are enabled to lay before our readers a report of the address and response, as taken in short hand. We are indebted to Mr. Stedman, the gentleman who reported the remarks of Messrs. Hise and Roed, as they appeared in another column of our paper, for this report also, which has not been revised.

Mr. Spevenson, on being introduced by Judge Hise to John C. Breckinridge, spoke as follows: Major Breckingides:—As the selected organ of the Electors of the State of Kentucky, I am authorized to present you, sir, their cordial congratulation upon your election to the second highest office within the gift of the American people. By the discharge of our duties just fin-ished, Kentucky has been brought back to the republican track of free government. In early days there was no state truer than she, to Democratic principles. A long time has elapsed since the people of this State have witnessed a Democratic Electoral College assembled within her Capitol. It is a cheering indication, and excita-tory of our gratification to know, that in this momentous trial,—the most momentous since the days of '98,—she has proved true to the demands able incident connected with this glorious event, so well calculated to fill Democratic hearts with rejoicing; if there be one single emotion more memorable than the rest, it is, that, as the Breckinridges in '98 led fearlessly the Democratic phalaux, the mantle of their sainted spirits has descended upon one of the same name, and of the same faith, upon one who has fought so long, so fearlessly, and so ably in vindication of those principles. CHAPTER II. Fillm. On the afternoon of the funeral, when the dead body that had been for three days solemnizing the aspect of the "great house," was laid in its last long home, a little party assembled in the library, to hear the reading of the will. It was all over now—the funeral services the tears—the prayers—and nothing remained but for the living to divide the spoil. We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting our friend Chas. Miller, of this city, who was passenger on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Rail road, at Alliance, where that collision took place. He represents the sight as in the highest degree horrible. Men and women were terribly mangled. Believing it to be the intention of every voter in the Commonwealth to cast his suffrage direct for the presidential candidate, and that, consequently, wherever differences occur between electors on the same ticket, they ult solely from the negligence of clerks we have nalized the vote of the Democratic electors in counties, in all cases on the highest figures, and so with the Know Nothing electors. zation is not only correct, in point of principle, to ascertain the sentiments of the people, but is perfectly fair between the parties. calculation of the result is very simple, and easily explained. It will be seen from the Official Election Returns of the Board of Examiners on another page, that a majority of the Democratic electors received 69,299, and a majority of the Know Nothing electors received 63,224 votes. Taking these sums as a basis of calculation, we note all vote of Electors on the same ticket. In Gallatin county, in one precinct, the Electors, Kelsey Democrat and Rankin Know-Nothing, receired respectively 135 and 123 votes more than their several co-electors of same politics. This occurred by an evident mistake, and the additional votes received by these electors should be computed in the aggregate vote of the State. In Ohio county the two State Electors and the district elector of both parties received respectively 140 and 77 more votes than the others on the same tickets to be followed by the comedy entitled "Perfec- This was a mistake similar to the one in Gallatin, and occurred in the poll books of one pre-cinct. In Pendleton county the two State Electors of both parties were alone voted for in one precinct, and received respectively 70 and 90 more votes than their co-electors. This also was evidently a mistake of the officers of election, in not recording the votes in full. In precinct of Lawrence county the returns from which are excluded by the Examiners. DR. ROBACK'S SCANDINAVIAN REMEDIES .- In directing the attention of our readers to Dr. Roinquiries put by the applicant was in regard to the disposition and general character of the proprietors, he having heard it intimated that he was of a moreose and turbulent disposition. Now it that country some years ago, he collected a large quantity of rare medicinal herbs, unknown in this country, and by combining the liquids and solid extracts of those possessing powerful detergent properties, he succeeded in producing his celebrated Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, which celebrated Blood Purifier and Blood Pills, which are said to exercise a more beneficial effect upon the fluids of the human body than any other curatives in existence. Dr. Roback's theory is, that all diseases originate in the blood, and it would seem that the rapid recovery of his patients, under a course of these disinfectants, affords strong presumptive evidence that his pathology is correct. Certain it is that the celebrity of his medicines increases daily, and that he has authentic proofs of their success in his possessions. See Advertisement.

Dr. S. A. Weaver has turned his attention or years to each diseases as Canker, Erysipelas, Scrofula, and we are happy to learn that his patient researches have resulted in great benefits to those afficted with such diseases. The Canker and Salt Rheum Syrup, with the Crete, will be found the most certain and speedy cure ever offered in this country. The reputation his medicine has acquired, the certainty of cure whenever it is used, induces us to urge upon all the necessity of playing particular attention to this subject.

A melancholy occurrence took place here lately. A young man named Charles Manegault, a member of a wealthy family in South Carolina. was burned to death. Mr. Manegault was a crip-ple, having one cork leg, and from all that could be gathered from his confused statements before he died, he must have got up in the night and lit a candle, which he left burning, and which afterward communicated its flame to the bedclothes. The remains of the deceased were sent to his friends in Charleston, on Saturday, by the more tile ones—their obviation and rever by a process at once so simple, sale and effectual, that failure is impossible—rules for daily management—an essay on safer and more successful mode of treatment—precautionary hints on the evil results from empirical practice; to which is added commentaries on all the diseases of females—from infancy to old age—each case graphically illustrated by beautiful plates. It points out the remedies for those self-inflicted miseries and disappointed hopes so unfortunately prevalent in the young. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage. Its perusals pruticularly recommended to persons entertaining secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to which every human being is entitled to.

LOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.Anew and revised edition of 250 pages and 180 plates. Price 25 cents a copy. A popular and comprehensive treatise on the duties and casualities of single and married life—happy and ruifful alliances, mode of securing them—infelictious and merrie ones—their obviation and re-

Price 25 cents per copy, of five copies for $1, mailed free of postage to any part of the United States, by addressing 25 cents. Dr. LA CROIX, (post paid.) Albany, New York, enclosing 25 cents.

N. B.—Those who prefer may consult Dr. LA CROIX upon any of the diseases upon which his book treats, either personally or by mail. His medicines often cure in the short space of six days, and completely and entirely eradicate all traces of those disorders which copaiva and cubebs having so long been thought an antidote, to the ram of the health of the paient. His "French Secret" is the great continual remedy for that class of disorders which, unfortunately, prysicians treat with mercury, to the irretrievable destruction of th parient's constitution, and which all the sarsaparida in the world extincture. tion, and which all the sarsaparina in the world exhibition.

Dr. LA CROIX'S medicines are free from all mineral poisons, and put in a neat and compact form, which can be sent by Express or Mail, and may be taken in a public or private house, or while traveling, without exposure to the most intimate friend or room mate, or hindrance from business or study, and no important change in the diet is necessary. Medicines sent to any part of the Umon, according to directions, safely packed and carefully secured from all observation.

If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, for it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause of, and very frequently terminates in consumption I would impress upon the mind that to trifle with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal beings, or to embitter existence by adding a consciousness of folly to the penalty of pain.
This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most delicate stomach can bear it conven ieutly, and it is given with perfect safety, in minute doses to the most tender infants, its properties being of a strengthening and invigorating nature. It is neatly put up in bottles, with ample directions for use.
The following testimonials from some well known and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti Dyspeptic Elixir.

Attetsation. We, having used William's Anti-Dyspectic Elixir with the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great pleasure in recommending it to all persons suffering with Dyspepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimable qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing all pain and uneasiness, and imparting a healthy tone to the stomach.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1863.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weigat in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretened. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and ner-vous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost miraculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.

I am, dear sir, yours truly.

IN calling the attention of dealers in our line in this market, we would state that during the last six months our attention has been directed to getting up a large number of new Stove and Grate Patterns, which, added to our al ready large stock, gives us one of the most extensive and diversified assortments in the western market. Among the number, we would refer to our "Ashland Kentuckian" Cook Stove, (three sizes out.) These Stoves have grea 1 weight of metal, highly finished and elegant in appearance. They combine all the modern improvements that practical experience has developed.

We would invite dealers to call and examine rot themselves, and we think in quality, price, &c., they can be suited. Having enlarged our manufacturing department, we can promptly meet all demands. Thankful for the pat gonage which has been so kinkly bestowed upon us, we trust, by strict and prompt attention to all orders, to secure devork shall be, as heretofrore, equal if not superior to the best, and satisfaction given in all casees.
